

Inchcape is a leading, international automotive distributor and retailer operating in 32 mature and emerging markets representing the world's leading automotive brands.

Headquartered in London

Scale operation in the UK, Singapore, Australia, Hong Kong, Greece, Belgium, Russia, Finland and Baltics

Inchcape Lithuania employs almost 400 people...

...and represents

We are currently looking for IS Service Delivery Manager

About the job

Own the relationship with local IT suppliers.

Actively Participate in Compliance (MCF, GDPR, IS Security) projects covering IS part.

Be the main local IT contact for business and a key escalation point of contact for all IT-related issues.

Own the local IT budget (Opex and Capex).

Manage local IT projects (initiated by Business or OEM or IT) – budget, costs, planning and delivery the goals in agreed time.

Make sure that needed Business Continuity Plans (DRP, Backup, etc) covering IT Service part are in place to cover the risks.

Actively participate in finding synergies, standardise Applications and Infrastructure between countries.

Actively participate in NE IT team work. Engage, if and when necessary, at NE Region level.

About YOU

Proven track record of managing successful projects.

Proven track record of managing IT suppliers.

Experience of managing ERP systems.

Experience of being responsible for IT security.

Excellent communication skills and the ability to communicate effectively at all management levels.

Excellent interpersonal skills.

Strong teamwork and influencing skills.

Self-driven with the ability to identify and drive their own objectives & initiatives with a minimum of guidance.

Fluent in English.

Experience in managing IT in a Retail environment

YOU may expect

Become a part of big and passionate team of professionals and a member of Inchcape International IT team

Gain great international experience across Inchcape Group and exciting automotive industry

Develop your competences through cross-functional collaboration and exposure to world class automotive manufacturers

International career opportunities

Is it YOU? Apply now! cv.lietuva@inchcape.lt

For more information about your personal data handling and your rights, please, see our Privacy Notice on www.inchcape.lt